Guide to filling in the application form

Before you fill in your application, you should read this guidance leaflet. The information you include in your application is the only information that we will use to decide whether you will be shortlisted for an interview. We will not take into account any previous applications that you have sent us or anything that we already know about you. It is important you take your time to fill in the application as fully and as accurately as possible in black ink.

Read all the information about the job (the covering letter, advertisement, job description, person specification). Fill in all parts of the application form. If some parts do not apply to you, write N/A (not applicable) in the spaces provided. Tell us about any education and training that you have received, as well as any relevant experience in your present or previous jobs. If you have any work experience, tell us about the skills and knowledge you have gained from that too.

Job requirements

Every job is based on a 'job description', 'person specification'. The job description lists the main duties and responsibilities of the post; the person specification outlines the skills, knowledge, abilities, experience, qualifications and so on, that you will need for the job.

We will assess your application against the person specification.

Supporting statement

Do not ignore the supporting statement section of the form. It is an important part of the application form because you can tell us about your skills, knowledge, abilities, experience and qualifications. Your supporting statement should only relate to the person specification and not to the main responsibilities. You should list every point of the person specification (essential and desirable), and next to each point give a specific example which shows that you have the required skills, experience, knowledge etc and how you have used them. You should describe what you can do and how you have done it in your current or previous job(s).

e.g. for the essential skill- Ability to record and pass on information accurately a suitable description could be something like: 'as part of my role, I meet with staff monthly to review each child's individual progress against the curriculum. I record progress and produce reports for parents/carers twice a year'.

A description such as: 'I write reports' is not suitable because it does not give enough information to demonstrate that you have the necessary experience or skills. Make sure the information you give us is clear, precise and easy to understand. You may continue your supporting statement on one additional A4 page.

Disclosure of criminal convictions

Given the nature of the job for which you are applying, and the fact that, it involves close work with children, the Rehabilitation of Offenders Order does not apply and you are expected to declare any spent convictions. However, having previous convictions may not affect your application. Any information given will be treated as strictly confidential and will be considered only in relation to this application.

Please circle answer Yes or No

1. Have you ever been convicted of a criminal offence (including motoring offences)?

Yes or No

2. Are there any cases pending against you?

Yes or No

3. Have you any spent convictions?

Yes or No

If you have answered yes to any of the above questions please give details below which you feel may be of relevance, such as:

- The circumstances of the offence
- A comment on the sentence received
- Any relevant development in your situation since then
- Whether or not you feel the conviction has relevance to this post

Note - convictions do not necessarily debar an applicant from obtaining employment.
